The article states that the "Strategy of Actions" (today as the Strategy of Development) serves as a unique program for the development of the country.

Culture is the tool that speaks about the past, present and future of every nation. Today, our nation occupies a special place in the world community with its rich culture and art. It is no exaggeration to say that a lot of remarkable work has been done in recent years. In particular, the "Strategy of Actions" developed by our Honorable President on February 7, 2017 (today as the Strategy of Development) served as a unique program for the development of the country and was an important factor in the implementation of comprehensive works. For example, extensive work was carried out in the field of "Development of the social sphere", one of the 4th priority areas of the strategy. Measures related to ensuring the employment of the population, especially the youth, social protection and health care of citizens, improvement of science, education, culture and sports, development of road transport, engineering and communication and social infrastructure. Done. In today's rapidly developing era, the concept of "New Uzbekistan" put forward by the head of our country has sounded in the language of our people in a unique way and encourages to take a step towards a new outlook and thinking. It should be noted that the establishment of New Uzbekistan is not just a wishful, subjective phenomenon, but the existing political-legal, socio-economic, spiritual-educational situation in our country, which has fundamental historical foundations. it is an objective necessity that demands it, corresponds to the age-old aspirations of our people, and fully responds to its national interests. [1:106]. New Uzbekistan is a democracy that strictly adheres to universally recognized norms and principles of human rights and freedoms, develops on the basis of the principles of friendly cooperation with the world community, and the ultimate goal is to create a free, prosperous and prosperous life for our people. It is a country in which the well-being, rights and freedom of the people are properly appreciated, and the people's consent is achieved, then the future of that country will be great and important. In order to achieve people's approval, ensure the prosperity of the country, and take a worthy place in the world community, a large number of works are being carried out in our country today. Attention is paid to many areas. As long as a person is alive, he feels the need for music, songs, and masterpieces of art that give the mood to the soul. Culture and art are a priceless treasure of society, an incomparable discovery of human thinking. Culture and art are one of the important areas of attention in the modernizing Uzbekistan. Culture and art are the face of the country, the nation. Each nation is distinguished by its own national culture, traditions, and its own style. The Uzbek people have a rich cultural heritage unique to themselves, which has captivated the people of the whole world with its charm. We would not be wrong to say that this world recognition is the result of great attention and care paid to the development of the industry by the head of our country. On November 28, 2018, the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan signed Resolution PQ-4038 "On approval of the concept of further development of national culture in the Republic of Uzbekistan". Annex 3 of this decision approved the program of measures for the further development and improvement of the activities of cultural centers in 2019-2020. In this program, the main task is to create a normative legal framework for the field of culture, to further improve the institutional system in this field and the activities of cultural institutions. Also:

Improving the quality and content of services provided to the population by cultural centers;

Revising and approving sample staff tables of cultural centers;

Analytical review of the repertoire plans of artistic amateur groups in cultural centers and providing them with new works and collections, as well as improving the system of its financing;

Important tasks such as the organization of libraries and study halls, the formation of their book funds and regular supply of new literature have been performed in each of the Cultural Centers. Modern cultural centers aim to support the creative initiatives of artistic creativity and amateurs and social and cultural activity of the population, and provide meaningful recreation, taking into account the needs of the public in learning and preserving the traditions of our national culture. "During the years of independence, the fundamental modernization of many social spheres in our country, the increase in the social standard of living increased the demands of the population for social and household needs. Children of the 21st century are studying in modern schools and colleges based on improved state educational requirements. Today, having studied the demands and needs of the population of Uzbekistan, which are growing day by day, attention is being paid to the cultural centers being built in our country, along with supporting the socio-cultural activity of the population, as well as meaningful rest. [1:228]. In this sense, the main emphasis is on the creation of new types of services for the population, clubs, artistic amateur groups, studios, associations of enthusiasts. In particular, in these centers there are folk amateur art circles, national-applied art circles, intangible cultural heritage study circles, studios, amateur associations, sports circles, foreign language courses, etc. is organized. For this purpose, wide distribution of cultural and educational services intended for all segments of the population, internet studios, electronic resources, including information and communication technologies through the Internet, and multi-functional halls where foreign language learning courses are organized are interesting and enjoyable. it is required to organize performances and other solemn events, debate clubs, competitions in table sports and intellectual games. The main goal of the cultural center is to further develop national culture in the Republic of Uzbekistan, to improve the quality of cultural services to the population, to satisfy their cultural needs and to ensure the meaningful passage of their free time, to promote national values, customs and traditions of creative communities. [2:128]. formation of exemplary programs, which include the mothers, preservation and development of folk art and artistic amateur art, organization of various clubs, studios, courses, amateur clubs, artistic amateur teams and favorable conditions for their operation is to create.
